TMSi President Ron Cain Joins Council of Supply-Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP) Roundtable

Cain will discuss how “Developing the Right Culture to Achieve Better Performance and Continuous Cost Out Improvements”

(PORTSMOUTH, NH) – Ron Cain, President of TMSi, will join the CSCMP Roundtable on how to build more efficient workplaces. Mr. Cain, who has worked with TMSi to build a performance based culture through a equation of IQ (intelligence quotient) + EQ (emotional quotient), will speak on February 21, 2008 at the Best Western in Waltham, MA.

About Ron Cain

As President of TMSi, Ron Cain takes a proactive role in building solutions to client’s logistics and supply-chain needs. With over 20 years of experience in high-performing logistics management, Ron - along with a talented leadership team - has played a significant part in forging the TMSi approach of building successful performance-based workforces. By applying the TMSi philosophy of staffing, incentives for success, and empowering employees to innovate, Ron and the TMSi leadership team has helped TMSi’s clients excel by focusing on their core mission.

He joined TMSi in 1999 after working with several Fortune 100 companies in which he was responsible for designing, building and executing supply chain solutions. Ron holds a BA from Northeastern University, Supply Chain Logistics Certification: MIT, Logistics Management Program: Penn State University, the Sloan School of Management, EMBA: Harvard University. CQM, Quality Manager Certification, Six-Sigma Certification.
