Andy Dishner of TMSi Logistics Presents
“Outsourcing: All, Some, or None?” at WERC 2009

(Knoxville, TN | Portsmouth, NH) – Andy Dishner, Director of Client Solutions for TMSi Logistics, has been selected to speak at the 32nd Annual Warehousing Education and Research Council (WERC) Conference for the second consecutive year. His presentation will be held on Tuesday, April 28th, 2009 from 10:15-11:30AM at the Atlanta Marriott Marquis in Atlanta, GA.

Mr. Dishner’s presentation, entitled “Outsourcing: None, Some, or All?”, will explain how to determine whether or not a company is ready to outsource its supply chain, and if so, what steps can and should be taken when choosing a third party logistics provider (3PL). Through an interactive presentation consisting of numerous case studies, Mr. Dishner and his co-presenter, Damian Burke, Principal of Conveying Solutions in Winder, Georgia, will demystify the process of outsourcing.

“We are delighted to have Andy representing TMSi at the WERC Conference for the second consecutive year,” said Ron Cain, Chairman and CEO of TMSi Logistics. “Andy’s expertise in supply chain management solutions – along with his dynamic speaking style – will undoubtedly deliver a captivating and educational experience.”

To register for the WERC Annual Conference, download the registration form at <https://www.werc.org/Default.aspx> or call to schedule a personal one-on-one meeting with Andy Dishner during the conference at (603) 415-4444.
