TMSi Logistics Selected as Top 100 3PL Provider by Inbound Logistics Magazine for Fourth Consecutive Year

(Portsmouth, NH | Fernandina, FL) - TMSi Logistics is proud to announce that it has been named as one of the Top 100 3PL Providers by Inbound Logistics Magazine, a leading publication in the logistics industry, for the fourth consecutive year. This prestigious honor is awarded based on criteria such as operational excellence, innovation, network of customer relationships, and quality of services. TMSi was selected out of a candidate pool of over 500 companies that specialize in outsourced logistics services. Inbound Logistics Magazine's full list of honorees can be seen at www.inboundlogistics.com/3pl/top100.shtml.

Felecia Stratton, editor of Inbound Logistics, states; "Tactical operational results are fundamental to 3PL value, but so is the strategic vision of experienced logistics providers. Today's business logistics leaders say they appreciate 3PLs that are proactive, take the lead in offering suggestions, and help transform the enterprise. TMSi qualifies as an Inbound Logistics 2009 Top 100 3PL Provider because it has shown consistent results in transforming customers' logistics and supply networks, businesses, and enterprises."

"It's very rewarding to see that we're on the Top 100 list again, because it tells us that we are focused on what really matters to companies that use third-party logistics services" explains Ron Cain, Chairman and CEO of TMSi. "It's a testament to our people, our culture, and our ability to deliver real and sustainable performance results to all of our client relationships".
